

at the Council of Europe or collaborators or observers for European organizations), and in addition a spontaneous participation in the construction of the area of justice thanks to original initiatives emanating from the professionals, like in particular the proposal for a creation of the European Coordination Committee for justice in Europe.

In his closing speech, Paul Rochard, vice-president of the French National Chamber of Judicial Officers (CNHJ), indicated that the CNHJ was ready to support the project presented by Jean-Paul Spinelli and to ensure a logistical support and material to him. Mr Rochard thanked all the participants for the very great quality of their interventions as well as the UIHJ, represented by its president, Jacques Isnard, and President Bertaux, to have worked in the realization of this historical event. In fact, it was the first time indeed that a conference, which should be the subject of a publication in the next months, joined together as many actors of the European construction, tending to prove the very great strength of the profession of Judicial Officer on the international level.

Paul Rochard, nouveau président de la Chambre nationale des huissiers de justice de France

Paul Rochard, the new President of the French National Chambers of Judicial Officers

Philippe Lortie

Une partie du public/A part of the audience

Katja Lenzing

C'est Paul Rochard, huissier de justice à Angers, qui a été élu au cours d'un scrutin qui s'est déroulé le 16 décembre 2005. Il succède à Yves Martin.

Selon les statuts des huissiers de justice français le président de la chambre nationale des huissiers de justice de France est élu pour une durée de 2 ans non immédiatement reconductible. Aussi, après deux années de mandat, à l'occasion du renouvellement du bureau, les délégués de la chambre nationale sont tenus de désigner un nouveau président. C'est Paul Rochard qui a été élu au cours d'un scrutin qui s'est déroulé le 16 décembre dernier. Il succède à Maître Yves Martin. L'UIHJ se réjouit de cette élection et adresse toutes ses félicitations au nouveau président de la chambre nationale française qui rassemble — rappelons-le — le plus grand nombre d'huissiers parmi toutes les organisations membres de l'UIHJ. L'UIHJ adresse encore tous ses compliments aux membres qui composent le nouveau bureau qui est donc constitué pour les années 2006/2007 de la façon suivante :

Président : Paul Rochard

Vice Président : Guy Chézeaubernard

Secrétaire : Alain Bighelli

Trésorier : Dominique Mahieux

Trésorier adjoint : Jean-François Richard

Membres : Jean-Loup Garnier et Gérard Ploux

Paul Rochard, Judicial Officer in Angers (France), was elected during a voting session that took place on 16th December 2005, as a successor to Yves Martin

According to the status of French Judicial Officers, the president of the National chamber is elected for two years and is not immediately re-eligible.

Therefore, after a two years mandate, when a new board is elected, the delegates of the French National Chamber have to choose a new president. This time, it is Paul Rochard, Judicial Officer in Angers (France), who was elected during a voting session that took place on 16th December 2005, as a successor to Yves Martin.

The UIHJ is very pleased about this new election and congratulates the new president of the French National Chamber, which is, it has to be reminded, the largest of all the organizations of UIHJ.

The UIHJ also welcomes all the members who are making the new board for 2006/2007, who are as follows:

President: Paul Rochard

Vice-President: Guy Chézeaubernard

Secretary: Alain Bighelli

Treasurer: Dominique Mahieux

Vice-Treasurer: Jean-François Richard

Members: Jean-Loup Garnier and Gérard Ploux